

Terms of Use (TOU)

CampusFind Pro - User Agreement and General Platform Rules

1. Account Registration & University Conduct

Access to CampusFind Pro requires registration with verified student or university credentials. Users must verify their profiles via Google OAuth. You are responsible for protecting your session details and must notify the IT administrator immediately of any unauthorized access.

2. User Responsibilities & Prohibited Acts

- Users must not report duplicate items or submit false, fraudulent, or mock lost/found logs.
- Users must not upload offensive, inappropriate, copyrighted, or malicious photographs or text descriptions.
- Spam, automated submissions, and database injection attempts are strictly prohibited and will result in instant account ban.

3. Disclaimers of Liability

The university, platform developers, and portal administrators act purely as recovery helpers. We are not liable for property damage, lost items, unclaimed rewards, or agreements made between students. The platform reserves the right to delete, edit, or block duplicate or inappropriate reports without warning.
